

Smith-Woolwine, Inc.: Corporate Resume

Smith-Woolwine, Inc. engages in consulting, researching, and advising in the fields of airport resiliency, disaster preparedness, emergency planning, response, and recovery, and crisis communications.

Services Offered:

- Emergency operations plans for airports and other critical infrastructure systems and facilities
- Emergency preparedness and mitigation planning for airports and other critical infrastructure
- Comprehensive emergency and crisis communications plans including social media for emergency management (SMEM)
- Design of disaster preparedness training, drills, and exercises for airports
- After action reviews and evaluations of drills and exercises for airports or other organizations
- Disaster preparedness, response, and recovery facility planning, organizational, strategic planning, organizational, and stakeholder management
- Threat and hazard identification and risk assessment (THIRA)
- Risk and vulnerability analyses -- all-hazards
- Mitigation planning for airports
- Crisis communications
- Other related services

Contact:

Dr. James F. Smith, President
Smith-Woolwine, Inc.
2466 E. Northside Dr.
Jackson, MS 39211
(540) 239-1206 M
jfsmith@swva.net | Skype james.smith6562